CLUB BUSINESS

- Lee Radcliff, publisher of Show Me the Ozarks magazine, is celebrating the ninth anniversary of the initial publication of that magazine. Congratulations, Lee, on the nine years and on a fine magazine. And many thanks for all you do for our club.
- Steve Doerr announced the "Thank You" Bar-B-Que for all contributors to the MS Bike Ride will be October 9th, and will be held at the Wise New Heritage center in Webb City. Bar-B-Que goes from 5:00 to 10:00 pm. The band Silverado will be performing. Steve has additional information if anyone is in need of it.
- George Bostick reminded us of the NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) golf tournament which will be held on the 15th of September. There are still openings for teams, and for hole sponsors. Please contact George if interested.
- Kevin Greim announced the MSSU Lions will be at home again Saturday, playing Lincoln at 6:00 p.m. This weekend is also MSSU's "Hall of Fame" weekend. Normally the Hall of Fame ceremonies are held concurrently with the homecoming activities. However, since there are so many activities taking place on that day, it was decided to do things differently this year. Saturday there will be a Hall of Fame luncheon at Billingsly Student Center. Three MSSU athletes will be inducted at that time. If you would like to attend, call the office at 625-9317 to RSVP.

- Chuck Killinger has agreed to chair the membership committee again next year. Sharrock Dermott will again chair the Spiritual Values committee. However, Scott is still in need of chairpersons for the Administration Committee and the Apple Committee.

THE PROGRAM

Kelly

Heartland Opera Theatre will be putting on a program in a couple of weeks called "Hot Scandals." Kelly Musick is the director of this production. Today she introduced a couple of the performers in that production. Kelly warned us that this program is called "Scandals" for a good reason. It is not a G-rated production. But is it a fun program!

The first sample was Cassandria Mills singing "Mein Herr." Although Cassandria is actually a dancer, today she was singing. Kelly says sometimes dancers sing and singers dance.

Cassandria

Susie

Next Susie Lundy, who looked like a prim and proper school teacher, performed "Sex Education." Susie got into her act -- interfacing with the audience. They all seemed to love it!

Kelly wrapped it all up with "To Keep My Love Alive." In the stage production, this piece will actually be sung by Rebecca Luebber, who couldn't be with us today.

The Heartland Opera Theatre production of "Hot Scandals" will be September 10 & 11, at 8:00 pm, at the Ramsey Building, 6th & Main, Downtown Joplin. Tickets are $15 in advance, $20 at the door. Beer, wine and soft drinks will be served starting at 7:30. For ticket information call 782-4953.

Many thanks to Kelly, Susie, and Cassandria for a very entertaining program!

DRAWING WINNER

Chuck Lonardo was the lucky winner in today's drawing. He won a custom-crafted pen made by Steve Doerr. We also learned what "spalted maple" is. Ticket sales today totaled $40, which will all go to the Key Club scholarship fund.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"We learn from experience that men never learn anything from experience."

-- George Bernard Shaw
